

Abstract

Holy Quran involves several verses that ensure the importance of values in human life. Likewise Sunnah does approve. Both Quran and Sunnah aim at rectification and purification of values in human life as regard to be the basic guidance.

The importance of this work lies in examination of educational values in Omar Ibn Elkhattab's life. The study also identifies concept of values and their effects in education in addition to the identification of concept of values in Islamic thought in particular.

The work is then limited to educational values in Omar Ibn Ekhattab's life and it comprises five chapters. As for methodological aspect, historical, descriptive analytical method is used

Findings

- 1- The study approves that there are educational values in caliph Omar's life exemplified in (moral, political, spiritual, rational, social, aesthetical and economic values)
- 2- Values stand as a corner store in shaping individuals life as far as human are adhered to values.
- 3- Educational values in caliph Omar's life are ideal and could be adopted.

Recommendations :

- 1- Educational Syllabi should made in a way to match the orientations of Holy Quran and Sunnah.
- 2- Efforts should be made to inculcate Islamic education values in young generations.
- 3- Inculcating of educational values in students mind through provision of morally adhered teachers and teaching aids.

Suggestions :

Educational values in Caliph Omar's life approved to have great effects in rectification and purification of human behavior , though studies conducted in the area are generally rare. Therefore, the researcher suggests the need for special studies in educational values in caliph Omar's life.