

University of Gezira
Faculty of Medicine
Department of Community and Family Medicine
Dermatology Examination

Question (1): The following is/are true about lichen Planus

- 1- Characterize by silvery papules which show intense itch
- 2- The papule shows Wickham striae
- 3- The most serious type is the hypertrophic
- 4- Steroids has no place in the treatment.
- 5- Non of the above is true

Question (2): Human Papilloma virus :

- 1- Is RNA virus
- 2- Auspitz sign is negative
- 3- Sub type No. 2 can cause Ca cervix
- 4- Can be treated with cauterization only
- 5- All of the above are true

Question (3): The following are cause of intra epidermal bullae

- 1- Transient acantholytic dermatosis
- 2- Toxic epidermal necrolysis

- 3- Pemphigus
- 4- Porphyria cutanea tarda
- 5- Herpes zoster

Question (4): White hair is seen in the following:

- 1- Universal sign of ageing
- 2- Werner's syndrome
- 3- Pernicious anaemia
- 4- Thyroid disorder
- 5- Addison's disease

Question (5): the following is false true about T. capitatus

- 1- Zoophilic fungi cause minimal reactivity
- 2- Favus Kerion leads to cicatricial alopecia
- 3- Diagnose by scraping only
- 4- Highly contagious
- 5- Id reaction can occur

Question (6): H. Simplex type 2:

- 1- Cause multiple painless genital or perianal blisters
- 2- After primary infection there is no recurrent attack

- 3- Eczema is usual complication in seborrhoeic patient
- 4- Erythema multiformis is unusual complication
- 5- Systemic acyclovir can restore the condition

Question (7): the following statements is/are true about secondary syphilis:

- 1- There is localized lymphadenopathy
- 2- There is patchy hair loss.
- 3- There are mucosal patches
- 4- There is malaise
- 5- There are condylomata

Question (8): the following is/are causes of contact urticaria

- 1- Food and food additive
- 2- Drugs
- 3- Animal saliva
- 4- Caterpillar
- 5- Plants

Question (9): the following is true about tuberculoid leprosy

- 1- The lesions are bilateral

- 2- Large foam (VIRSHIOW) self is dominant feature
- 3- Lymphocytes and epitheloid cells are defined feature
- 4- Neurological damage is a defined feature
- 5- Treatment by pauci-bacillary drugs

Question (10): the following are causes of localized scarring alopecia

- 1- Lichen planus
- 2- Andro genetic
- 3- Hair pulling habit
- 4- Radio dermatitis
- 5- Lupus erythematosus

Part (II)

WRITE SHORT NOTES ABOUT

- 1- Scabies
- 2- Squamous cell Ca