

DEDICATION

To my first teacher, who did great efforts, and teach me how to make the wisdom to my future. To that who dig the ground and put a seed inside, and keep irrigating it, and deserve feeling happy. To that who teach me the meaning of patience.....

MY FATHER

To the big heart, the flowing river of giving in silence, who stand beside me along the way, rigidly like a stone, showing me the way to the highest, to the secret of my success and existence.....

MY MOTHER

To those support and keep giving hands to me. Who share the better and sweet days with me? Whom I hope bright future for them.....

MY BROTHER
