References

First: The Ever-Glorious QURAN.

Second: Books:

1. Accounting and Auditing Organization for Islamic Financial Institutions (AAOIF), Accounting, Auditing and Governance Standards for Islamic Financial Institutions, Manama, Bahrain 1422 A.H.-2001A.B.

2. (AAOIFI), Resolutions on Sukūk, Bahrain, February 2008.

5. (AAOIFI), the Full Text of Shari’a Manama, Bahrain, Safar 1421H-June2000.

6. (AAOIFI), The Rationale of Capital Adequacy Ratio and its Calculations for Islamic Banks, Manama, Bahrain: March 1999

8. BIS, Enhancing Bank Transparency, Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS), and Basel, Switzerland: September, 1998

27. Munawar Iqbal and Philip Molyneux, Thirty years of Islamic Banking (history, performance and prospects), Palgrave, McMillan1, UK, 2005.

30. Nawal, Hussein, the Financial Institutions (Arabic), University of Khartoum-Sudan 2003.

32. Simon Archer and Rifaat Ahmed Abdel Karim, Islamic Finance Innovation and Growth, Emirates Printing Press, Dubai No Date.

34. Tariq Abdel -Aal Hamad, Risk Management (Risk of credit, investment, derivatives and exchange rate), Al-Dar Al-Gamiyah- Cairo, Egypt, 2003.

37. Union Of Arab Banks, "Your Manual to Basel II Agreement (the content the importance and dimensions) by: Dr. Nabbeel Hashaad, Beirut, Lebanon 2004.
Third: Annual Reports, Circulars, Magazines Conferences Papers and Other Unpublished Materials:

5. (CBOS), Banks Supervision Dept. Circulars, Various issues.

6. (CBOS), Collective Budgets of the Local Banks for the Years 1960-2008.

10. (IFSB), " Public Hearing on the (IFSB) Guiding Principles of Capital Adequacy of the Institutions Offering Only Islamic Financial Services

Fourth: Internet Websites:

2. www.cbos.gov.sd
3. WWW.ifsb.org.
5. www.ifsb.org/index.php, Membership of the IFSB.
6. www.ifsb.org/index.php, Objectives of the ISFB.
8. www.ifsb.org/index.php, Structure of the IFSB.
9. www.ifsb.org/index.php, IFSB Prudential Standards (e.g. Capital Adequacy, Risk Management, Disclosure to Promote Transparency, Corporate Governance ...etc.).