

ABSTRSCT

This research aimed to highlight the activities of the international organizations in Sudan with their three types of them , united nations agencies , international organizations , and nongovernmental , by having a back history view and link that with the present situation

The research covers the history of the international humanitarian organization work in Sudan and the influence of these organizations on the events after the independence of the Sudan , farther more the researcher highlights the nature and locations of these organizations activities all . over Sudan

The research covers also the applicable laws, regulations and directives of Sudanese authorities for controlling and managing the international .organizations activities in Sudan

The researcher brings in place the negative impacts of these organizations activities in Sudan .socially, economically, security and politically

The researcher showed the consequences of these impacts in the presence and the future of the Sudan and Sudanese people with some proposed .proactive measurements

The researcher designed and distributed a questioner form to a random sample of some relevant individuals to get a feedback answers for .research analysis purposes

↳

Finally the researcher fund out some results with a recommendations which can lead to get appropriate solutions for this issue regarding to the regulations , laws enhancement and the role of the . national organizations , societies and officials

