Abstract

The study aims to investigate of the impact of western cononial culture on African local culture .The study also aims to discover the colonial social sociopolitical , cultural and economic factors , which had been beyond Igbo society collapse and fall aparts . The researcher used the analytical descriptive method , in order to analyze Things Fall Apart and Arrow of God novels as comparing study . Through these novels the researcher focused on Igbo culture , traditions and how it was in pre – and post colonial period . So the reseacher has's concentrate on point of the internal and external conflicts among Igbo society , which exploited by colonizers and missionaries to infiltrate among them which led to the collapse of the Igbo community and the disapperance of their cultures . The study proved that the Africann culture has been effected by the western cultural invasion and become westernized .
