

SUDAN UNIVERSITY FOR SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY
COLLEGE OF GRADUATE STUDIES

INVESTIGATING DIFFICULTIES FACING THE SUDANESE SECONDARY SCHOOL STUDENTS IN WRITING IN ENGLISH AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE.

THESIS SUBMITTED IN FULFILLMENT OF (M.ED) DEGREE IN CURRICULUM & METHODS OF TEACHING ENGLISH LANGUAGE.

BY:

ALFRED GASIM YACOUB LABI.

SUPERVISED BY:

DR. ABDAL AZEEM ZEIN ALABDEEN AHMED.

AUGUST 2005

“NOTHING MORE THAN EDUCATION ADVANCES THE PROSPERITY, THE POWER AND THE HAPPINESS OF A NATION”

THOMAS JEFFERSON.

DEDICATION

To my poor illiterate parents, who managed to care for my education in the early age.

To my teachers in all levels of education.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the first place I thank the Almighty God for granting me effort and patience to complete this study. My most sincere thanks and gratitude go to my supervisor Dr. Abdal Azeem Zein Al-Abdeen Ahmed for extending his wide knowledge to me and for devoting his time and effort to assist and guide me, may the Lord give him good health, strength and long life so that he continues extending his knowledge and assistance to others.

I thank the members of my family in a special way for their tolerance while extracting part of their time and resources for this study. I appreciate the patience of my partner Jacqueline Gabriel and the encouragement of my uncle Gideon Lotio and other relatives.

I would not forget to extend many thanks to ustaz Juma Jaden whose struggle yields to a tangible support to me. I'm indebted to my colleague ustaz Al-Fadil Zakaria for his encouragement in different ways.

I thank all those who have shown good will through their cooperation and moral support, the director of Al-Zahideen secondary school ustaz Siham Saleem, my colleagues the secondary school teachers specially those of English language, the staff of Sudan library, the officials of Graduate College- Sudan University and many others whom I could not mention here, but their direct or indirect support had already contributed in pushing on the process of this study. May God reward them for their responsive attitudes.

CHAPTER ONE

THE RESEARCH PLAN

- 1. Introduction
- 2. Statement of the problem
- 3. Objectives of the research
- 4. The importance of the research
- 5. Questions of the research
- 6. Hypothesis
- 7. Research methodology.
- 8. Terminologies

CHAPTER TWO

LITERATURE REVIEW

- 1. Literature review
- 2. Conceptual frame work

CHAPTER THREE

THE RESEARCH PROCEDURES

- 1. The population
- 2. The sample
- 3. The research tools
- 4. The statistics formula

CHAPTER FOUR
ANALYSIS AND DISCUSSION OF THE RESULT

CHAPTER FIVE
THE RESEARCH SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATIONS

REFERENCES

APPENDIXES

THE RESULTS OF TESTS APPLIED TO AL-
ZAHIDEEN SECONDARY SCHOOL STUDENTS