
DEDICATION

This work is dedicated to the soul of my father,

My mother, sisters, brothers and to my friends.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all I thank Allah for giving me the will, strength and protection to plan and execute this work. I would like to express my gratitude and appreciation to my advisors Prof. Abdelhamid A. M. Elfadil, Prof. Musa Tibin Musa and my lecturers in Sudan University.

I am also indebted to Dr Elgadal, Head of the Department of Brucellosis in Soba Veterinary Research Institute, and his staff for their kind assistance and guidance, specially Dr. Enaam Elsanousi for providing me with the ELISA kits.

I am also thankful to my brother Abdalla Masry for his computer assistance, sheep owners for answering the questionnaires and to my colleagues for moral support. And to all people who helped me to accomplish this work.

Finally, I am very thankful to my mother, my beloved sisters and brothers for their everlasting support.
