

Abstract

In this work Maxwell distribution function is derived from the laws of fluid and quantum mechanics. The grand canonical distribution function is found from Maxwell distribution function. Then Fermi-Dirac and Bose-Einstein distribution are found from the grand canonical distribution without utilizing the statistical weight and Lagrange multipliers.